KARNES COUNTY FOOD ASSISTANCE PROGRAMS

The Karnes County Senior Program distributes groceries to qualifying seniors on a monthly basis. You must be 60 years of age, a resident of Karnes County and meet income guidelines to be eligible.

Food Fairs are held throughout the year as a supplement to other distributions.

Karnes County also sponsors a mobile food pantry the first Monday of the month, unless it falls on a holiday. The mobile food pantry has a variety of produce, frozen and refrigerated items, as well as shelf stable items. The next distribution is on Monday, March 6 at 10:00 AM.

All food distributions are held at 10:00 AM at the Karnes County Youth Show Barn across from Otto Kaiser Memorial Hospital off of Highway 181. For more information or to sign-up, call Mary Lozano with Judge Walter Long, Jr.'s office at 830/780-3732 or Katy Gonzales, Wesley Nurse at 830/254-8092.

FAMILY HEALTH SCREENING

Date: Tuesday, March 14
Time: 12:00 PM
Place: Community Room

Katy Gonzales, a Wesley Nurse with Methodist Health Care Ministries of South Texas will be here to provide health screening for all residents. Nurse Gonzales will also provide lunch for all that come. Please stop by the leasing office to sign-up so that she can prepare accordingly with the food and materials she will bring. Lunch and all services will be free for residents.
